

BY THE KING.

A Proclamation for the discovery of Rebels invading the County of Gloucester, and for the apprehending of Spies and Intelligencers.

HEREAS the Rebels in Our City of Glocester, Warwick-Castle, and diverse other places, doe frequently make Incursions into our County of Glocester, (notwithstanding We have sent diverse of Our Forces into that Our County for the security thereof) We doe therefore hereby Charge and Command all and every Person inhabiting in any Towne or Village in that County , as soone as they or any of them shall have notice of the comming in of such Rebels , to give notice thereof to one or more of Our Commissioners for that County dwelling nearest the said Towne or Village, or to the Governour or Principall Officer of Our next Garrison or Quarter; which if he or they shall neglect or faile to doe; We shall esteeme him or them Persons ill-affected to Us, and the peace of the County, and shall cause their Persons, Goods, and Estates to be seiled for such misdemeanors. And We doe farther Charge and Command all and every Person whatsoever, not to converse with, receive, entertain, or harbour any of the Rebels, Scouts, Spies, or Intelligencers, but to apprehend them, or discover to some one or more of Our Commilsioners, or the Principall Officer of the next Garrison or Quarter, upon the paine aforesaid. And We doe straitly Command every Minister, Parson, Incumbent, or Curate of every Parish-Church within Our County of Glocester to read and publish the same on the next Sunday after the receipt hereof, in the time of Divine Service. Given at Our Court at OXFORD this fourteenth of January, in the Nineteenth year of Our Reigne.

GOD SAVE THE KING.
